

TOTAL FORCE TRAINING

Navy Seabees at Fort Hunter Liggett

US Navy Seabees assigned to Underwater Construction Team (UCT) 2 from Port Hueneme, Calif., conducted a week-long training exercise at Fort Hunter Liggett which included navigation of the convoy live fire route. UCTs provide capabilities for construction, inspection, repair, and maintenance of ocean facilities in support of Navy and Marine Corps operations, including the repair of battle damage. (Photos provided by the US Navy)