

SUPPORTING THE FAMILIES

FHL Teen Center Grand Reopening

The Fort Hunter Liggett Teen Center reopened on Sept. 29, 2016, after extensive renovations to improve the facility and acquisition of new equipment. The center provides a safe and comfortable place for teens to do their homework and meet other teens living on post. The facility includes the latest videogame platforms and other entertainment activities. (US Army photos by Amy Phillips)